If you are interested in Theatre performance, you will learn:

- Character development
- Rehearsal techniques
- Monologue and scene study
- Audition preparation
- Voice and movement
- Directing for the stage
- Stage and screenwriting
- Script analysis
- Acting for the camera
- Shakespeare in production, Ibsen, Chekhov and more
- Acting fundamentals

Students who want to explore the technical and design elements of Theatre will learn:

- Introduction to general theatre techniques
- Lighting design
- Scenic design

- Intelligent lighting design
- Computer aided design
- Sound design
- Costume design
- Production crew training

You may choose to pursue an acting career in theatre, television or film. Or, you may decide to work behind the camera or on the stage as a director or producer. Opportunities are also available in academic and children's theatre.
