

Ability to Benefit (ATB)

In order to qualify for financial aid, students must have a high school diploma, be home schooled, or have one of the following recognized equivalents of a high school diploma.

1. The National High School Equivalency Testing Program (HiSET)
2. General Educational Development (GED)
3. Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC) Exam
4. California High School Proficiency (CHSPE) Exam

Students who are or were, enrolled in a Title IV eligible program any time prior to July 1, 2012, may continue to qualify for financial aid under one of the following ATB alternatives:

5. Completion of six college units prior to July 1, 2012
6. Completion of Citrus College ATB Exam (see financial aid for an eligibility referral)
