Civic Responsibility & Citizenship
How do you define civic responsibility? Civic Responsibility is comprised of actions and attitudes associated with democratic governance and social participation. This workshop will help you understand your roll as a citizen and encourage you to take responsibility for causes effecting your surrounding environment. Come and learn how you can create a legacy of leadership.

Save The Environment: Environmental Education
Do you want to increase your knowledge of issues concerning the environment? Participants will be encouraged to foster attitudes, motivations, and commitments to make informed decisions and take responsible action to create and maintain a sustainable environment.

Poverty To Prosperity
Have you ever been effected by poverty or know someone who has? The aim of this workshop is to motivate and encourage you to gain a greater sense of civic responsibility by exploring privilege in today’s society. Participation in this workshop will help you learn about resources available to be successful despite hardships.

Peace & Human Rights Education
Are you intrigued by the non-violent practices of Dr. Martin Luther King or Mahatma Gandhi? This workshop will help you acquire the values and knowledge associated with general respect for human rights and equality. Participants will critically analyze political and social structures that produce and legitimize injustice and inequality.

Controversy With Civility
Many issues can occur when trying to execute civility in any social setting. This workshop will help students gain skills on how to address issues such as these openly in a way that constitutes courtesy and respect.

Service Learning & Personal Development
Where are you going to complete your community service hours? This workshop will raise your awareness in service learning and how it correlates to personal development. Students will gain understanding on how to search for service opportunities within the San Gabriel Valley and develop a greater sense for community engagement.
