

Citrus College Media Advisory
March 9, 2015

Contact

Paula Green, Citrus College Office of External Relations, 626-914-8873 (office), 626-488-7855 (cell)

Media Advisory

Fulbright Scholar to Speak on “Ukraine Today” at Citrus College

What: Nataliia Borysenko, Ph.D., a resident Fulbright Scholar at Washington State University, will present a lecture, “Ukraine Today: People’s Hopes, Expectations, and Reality,” at Citrus College. This event is sponsored by the Citrus College Office of Academic Affairs and the Citrus College Foundation.

Who: The following persons will attend:
Dr. Nataliia Borysenko, guest speaker
Citrus College students, faculty, administrators, and staff
Citrus Community College District Board of Trustees members
Citrus College Foundation Board members

When: Thursday, March 12, 2015, 2:40-3:50 p.m.

Where: Citrus College
Performing Arts Building, Room 133
1000 W. Foothill Blvd., Glendora, CA
The entrance to the lecture room is from the Foothill Boulevard side of the Performing Arts Building, next to the Administration Building. A parking pass can be purchased for $5 from the Campus Safety Building, located at the Citrus Avenue entrance to the campus or from a parking pass machine located in the student parking lots.

Why: Dr. Borysenko is expected to discuss current events in Ukraine and the impact of these events on its citizens.